* Training Level and Western Dressage Tests may be ridden in a small or large arena subject to scheduling demands.

- Times will be posted on the HDA website (Heritage-Dressage.org) the Wednesday prior to show date; please no phone calls
- Classes may be divided into Junior/Senior if entries warrant
- An individual horse may be entered in a maximum of 4 Introductory Level classes or 4 Introductory and Training Level classes combined. An individual horse may be entered in no more than 3 classes at Training Level and above. This applies to the comparable Western Dressage Tests as well.
- Management reserves right to combine, cancel or divide classes if entries warrant
- No phone entries will be accepted
- No refunds after the closing date
- If officials are forced to cancel a show after the closing date and if rescheduling is not possible, HDA will make every effort to make refunds if the show budget permits
- A $25 fee will be charged for returned checks
- Protective headgear must be worn at all times while mounted

Year-End Award Rules 2017

- The rider must be an HDA member at the time of the show.
- The horse and rider must be the same.
- The rider must show in a minimum of two HDA shows in that year.
- The same test must be ridden a minimum of two times in HDA shows in that year.
- Once a horse and rider combination has competed in a Training Level class, they are no longer eligible to enter any USDF Introductory Level Tests.
- Awards shall be given for the highest average score in each test provided a minimum year-end average score of 55% is achieved.
- If a test is ridden 3 or more times, the single lowest score will be dropped in calculating the final average.
- If a test is ridden 4 times, the two lowest scores will be dropped in calculating the final average.
